Adjudicator - Marlene Finn: A native of Ottawa, Marlene Finn earned her Doctor of Musical Arts in Performance from the University of Montreal. Her piano teachers have included Dr. Natalie Pacquin and the late Yvonne Hubert in Montreal as well as Martin Canin in New York. She has participated in numerous master classes and piano seminars in the United States and in Europe where she had the opportunity of studying with Paul Badura-Skoda, Jorg Demus, Leon Fleisher, Bela Siki and Menahem Pressler among others. An active teacher and performer, Marlene is a faculty member at the Conservatoire de musique du Quebec in Gatineau where she has been serving as Professor of Piano since 1986. Her duties have also included teaching music and piano literature, collaborative piano as well as coaching chamber music ensembles. Prior to her position at the Conservatoire, she has taught at Queen's University in Kingston and at the University of Montreal. A highly appreciated pedagogue, she gives regular master classes and has adjudicated many competitions and exams across Quebec and Ontario. Many of her students have been the recipients of prestigious awards and scholarships and have been accepted in the finest music schools in the United States and in Europe. Marlene has performed as a soloist, collaborative pianist and chamber musician in Canada, the United States and in Europe and has been heard on CBC and the SRC. Since 2001, she especially enjoys her collaboration with pianist and colleague Pierre-Richard Aubin. They regularly perform four-hand and two piano repertoire, including transcriptions of major orchestral works. Recent performances have included Bartok's Sonata for Two Pianos and Percussion. They can be heard playing Mozart in Denys Arcanda's film The Barbarian Invasions.

Special Note To All Participants & Their Parents - Please Read

1. Please fill out a Class Admission Form for each class you are performing in. This must be completed before it is time for you to perform. Please use the form provided and make copies as required. There will be forms available at all Festival Classes. Please hand this form to the adjudicator or secretary when your class is called.
2. Please have your original music ready for the adjudicator. This should be open to the composition you are performing and clearly marked with your name. You can mark the spot in the book with the Class Admission Form. Please give this to the adjudicator or secretary when your class is called and pick it up directly after your class has been adjudicated.
3. The times scheduled in the programme are approximate. You should plan to be ready to play at least 10 minutes before your scheduled time - and to stay for at least one hour after the time scheduled for your class. In addition it is excellent experience to attend as many of the adjudicated classes as possible. Make a day of it.
4. Only videotaping, recording or photographing of your own family members is permitted. If you wish to record other performers you will need permission from their parents.
5. Please set cell phones on an inaudible ring - and hold conversations outside of the performance venue.
6. Please enter and exit the performance venue quietly between performances. Please do not enter or exit while a student is performing. As there is no admission fee there will not always be someone at the door. Please quietly close the door behind you.
